THE LATEST.

The news from the United States, so far as it concerns annexation, and as it is related by Commissioner Castle, may be described as encouraging. Public sentiment, by a vast majority approves the measure, and it is not thought that the President is against it. His course in sending Commissioner Blount is regarded as a natural one of inquiry and not as prompted by any purpose of a hostile nature to the reform movement represented by the Provisional government.

A WORD ABOUT TARIFFS.

Whoever it is that signs himself "Royalist" in the Bulletin, when he does not use some other non-descript name, should lay down the polemical pen and take up the political primer. In his letter printed last evening he argues against the annexation movement upon premises so clearly juvenile as to suggest the idea that a course in the kindergarten is his most pressing intellectual need.

We quote:
As an independent state at the "Cross Roads of the Pacific," with the Nicaragua Canal accomplished, the markets of the world are ours and we would be at liberty to load our ships to whatever point we could find the most advantageous for our peculiar products.

What, pray tell, would be in the way of doing that as American territory? Does "Royalist" assume that annexation means a restricted liberty upon outgoing commerce? There is nothing to keep a shipper in San Francisco, Sitka or Pensacola—cities of annexed regions—from seeking a maritime outlet for their wares in any part of the world. Why should there be here?

If the American Agriculturist is to be believed in ten years the United States will be able to produce beet sugar enough for her own consumption. In this event our cane sugar produced 2000 miles away from market will be at a disadvantage if, as a part of America, we are tied up to her tariff policy and are not at liberty to trade independently in other markets.

Still harping on a chimera! Does the Bulletin's correspondent imagine that the United States imposes an export duty? Does he think that there is any law against an American citizen sending his wares abroad? The tariff policy of the great republic covers an import tax and would leave Hawaii as free as California to ship sugar where she could get the most for it.

As an independent people, we are in a position to induce America to receive our free rice, and also seek independent advantages in other markets for our raw rice, or by manufacturing it into starch or alcohol.

That is to say, as outsiders we could get more favor from America than as insiders. Let the STAR inform "Royalist" what it ought not to be compelled to say to any one above the age of fifteen years, that there is no tariff on products which are interchanged between parts of the Union. As a territory of the United States Hawaii could enter her rice free at any American port and be at liberty, without, to send it anywhere else, during times of peace, that might suit her better.

ONE of the first things which Col. Blount is likely to discover in the Hawaiian situation is that the sugar planters had very little to do with producing it. An impression that they did has prevailed at Washington but it is certain to be upset by the facts. The records of the public meeting which preceded the revolution must show that the planters were far behind the commercial, industrial and professional men in urging a summary course.

No one who cares to learn the truth, or to tell it, need hesitate to fall into line with the STAR, in declaring that whenever suffrage comes, as in due time it will come, aboriginal Hawaiians will be on the same plane with whites. Preliminary negotiations rest with Mr. Cleveland and the Senate, and in no way can they affect such questions as suffrage, which must be passed on by Congress.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Gen. E. Kirby Smith is dead. Queen Victoria has gone to Italy. The Japanese navy is to be increased. Sugar has gone up from 3.11 to 3.60. Oxford won the University Boat race by a length. The new torpedo boat will be named the Ericson. Southern Californians are booming State division. A conflict between Brazil and Paraguay is impending. Italian anarchists in Rome are waging a dynamite war. Ex-President Harrison denies that he is to write a book. Four American first-class war ships will be sent to the Pacific. The bark Merom is believed to have been lost off Cape Flattery. Montreal is making elaborate preparations to resist the cholera.

Charles De Lesseps, Baihut and Blondin have been found guilty. The Mayor of Moscow was shot and killed at a meeting of the town council. It is reported that the New York Times has been sold to Charles R. Flint. The cruiser New York has had its trial trip and maintained a speed of 20 knots. Stockton and other towns in the San Joaquin valley have suffered serious floods. Costa Rica has sent a Special Envoy to President Cleveland with congratulations.

Of 280 Siberian exiles caught in a snow storm at Tomsk all were frozen to death. Several lives have been lost by the burning of the Morgan apartment house in Cleveland.

Editor Pulitzer's failure to get the French mission has soured the World on Cleveland. The flag of Ecuador was put at half-mast upon the announcement of Mr. Blaine's death. The Pope has declined to meet the German Emperor except with the ceremonial used in 1888.

Life-boats belonging to the missing White Star steamer Naronic have been found in mid-Atlantic. Lord Beresford ship, the Undaunted, went aground near Alexandria on Mar. 22, but was floated off. Villagers near Chifu, China, seized sixty pirates and killed them. The bodies were mutilated and the hearts eaten. Col. Elliot F. Shepard, son in law of the late Wm. H. Vanderbilt and editor of the N. Y. Mail and Express died while under the influence of ether. Jack the Ripper is thought to have been captured in London. The name of the man is Castellano. He is an Italian barber employed on an Atlantic liner.

At the Brisbane conference Mr. Ward advocated a route for the Pacific cable from Queensland to Ahipara bay, New Zealand, thence to Fiji, Hawaii and Vancouver. On motion the route was adopted. A hurricane has made great devastation in the New Caledonia and New Hebrides groups. The settlement of Port Sandwich was swept away and appalling floods swept the country. The Governor has cabled to France for $100,000 to relieve distress.

FOUND IN A BOTTLE.

An Alleged Message From the Lost Naronic.

NORFOLK, Va., March 28.—William Johnson, winter watchman at Ocean View, Va., near the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay, this morning picked up on the beach at that place a champagne bottle with several corks tied about its neck and with a letter inclosed giving alleged information of the sinking of the White Star steamship Naronic. It reads:

"3:30 A. M., Feb. 19, steamship Naronic, White Star line, at sea. 'To who picks this up: Report when you find this to our agents, if not heard of before, that our ship is fast sinking beneath the waves, and it is such a storm that we can never live in the small boats. One boat has already gone with her human cargo below. God let all of us live through this. We were struck by an iceberg in a blinding snowstorm and floated two hours. Now it is 3:30 A. M. by my watch and the great ship's deck is level with the sea. Report to the agents at Broadway, New York, M. Kerker & Co. Good-by all."

"JOHN OLSON, Cattleman." LONG BRANCH, N. J., March 29.—John Brown to-day shot a strange pigeon that was among his flock. Upon its leg was found a small silver band bearing the following: "In N. 13, 311." It is thought that the bird was from the lost steamer Naronic.

SPREAD OF CHOLERA.

Despite Every Effort It Is Advancing Through Europe.

VIENNA, March 29.—Cholera has appeared at Zalosse, a market town of Galicia. Every attempt has been made by the town authorities to check the disease, but despite their efforts it is spreading. Three deaths from cholera have already occurred, and a number of new cases are reported to-day.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—It is stated in the official report that an average of 150 new cases of cholera and 50 deaths from the disease are reported every week in the Government of Podolia.

HALIFAX, March 29.—The condition of the two immigrants removed to the hospital yesterday is favorable, and the hospital authorities declare that they are not suffering from cholera.

ADMITS HER IDOLATRY.

A Writer in the Holomua Discusses the Queen's Heathenism.

A writer in the Holomua of April 6th, offers the following "defense" of the ex-Queen against the charges made by Rev. S. E. Bishop that she had sacrificed pigs and fowls to the goddess Pele:

"How much pecuniary loss did you, S. E. Bishop, suffer by reason of the Queen's sacrificing to Pele a little pig and a fowl? Will the condemnation for those acts fall upon you in the day when Jesus comes? Are you the one who is to intercede for my Sovereign in that great and notable day? Very holy are you and other associates of your standing who are living and who have passed away? Suppose that my Sovereign did really sacrifice, are these then the words of God written in the second section of the Ten Commandments, 'Thou shalt not give a pig and a fowl to Pele merely as a present? Is that a reason for making an end of this thing, the love of the Chief from the hearts of the Hawaiian people? Are you, great hypocrite, one superior to Jesus Christ, who talks right before your spectacles, 'I did not come to this world for the righteous?'"

Not a Public Character.

The young lady who is variously known as the Princess Kaiulani and Miss Cleghorn has said her good-by very prettily. She is thankful for the recognition that has been extended to her and for the words of sympathy that have been spoken and written. The error of this young lady is in supposing that she is in any sense a public character. As Miss Cleghorn she will always be kindly received in this country, and by none more so than by those who favor the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. Although the admission will not be made that she has any claim upon the island throne, there will be no objection to a reasonable compensation for the loss of expectations which annexation will involve. With an income of $20,000 a year Miss Cleghorn would be much happier than Queen Kaiulani could hope to be. San Francisco Bulletin.

By and By the evening falls,
Sons of labor rest;
Weary cattle seek the stalls,
Birds are in the nest.
By and By the tide will turn,
A change come o'er the sky
Life's hard task my boy will learn,
By and By.
By and By the din will cease,
Days long hours be past;
By and By in holy peace
We shall sleep at last.
Calm will be the sea wind's roar,
Toil and moil and weep no more,
By and By.
MARY SUTHERLAND.

American Sentiment.

Letters from two prominent citizens of New York have been received in Honolulu, which both state, that while Cleveland has not uttered a word on annexation so far, the people generally throughout the union are in favor of it, and believe it to be the ultimate result of the present negotiation.

M. McINERNY.

Are we to be, or not to be, a part of the Great Republic, seems to be the burning question of the day, and one we had rather leave to wiser heads than ours to solve; and while great statesmen are wrestling with this momentous question, we want to have a little "how-wow" with you on some other subjects, that concern you as well as ourselves.

Has it not occurred to you that you've been wearing that old hat long enough! In these progressive times if you intend to be "in it," you've got to keep pace with fashion. No matter how otherwise well dressed you may be, unless your hat is the correct thing you bear a shabby appearance.

We have already laid in a stock of the Latest Hats of the coming Spring and Summer styles, in hard felts, soft felts and straws, and including a line of the celebrated "Fidora" Hats, at present all the rage in the United States. There is therefore, no necessity for you to hang on any longer to that old Tile that bears such a strong resemblance to the hat "your father wore."

Believing that business will be better in the near future, we have not hesitated to keep our stock full in all lines. Take collars for instance: We have almost everything you could wish for. If you wear a standing collar, just come in and take a look at our "Narenta" or "Ardonia;" or if you prefer a turn down collar, try the "Winnipeg" or "Goswell;" we have have lots of others, and can't fail to suit you. Cuffs in abundance, links or otherwise.

Neckwear in profusion, scarfs windsors 4-in-hands, and a special lot of "Boys' Bows;" suspenders in great variety, leather and woven ends, good strong, serviceable goods.

We might go on indefinitely, but space is valuable, and to enumerate everything we carry would fill a pretty fair sized Book. If there is anything you want in the men's line, just drop in and see us, and if we can't suit you, we don't believe any one can.

If you should want a pair of nice shoes, let us try a hand at fitting you. Did it ever occur to you

How much a man is like his shoes; For instance, both a soul may lose. Both have been tanned; Both are made tight by Cobblers; Both get left and right; Both need a mate to be complete; And both are made to go on feet.

They both need healing; oft are sold, And both in time will turn to mould. With shoes the last is first; with men The first shall be the last; and when The shoes wear out, they're mended new; When men wear out, they're men dead too.

They both are trod upon, and both Will tread on others nothing loth. Both have their ties, and both incline When polished, in the world to shine; And both get put out. Now would you choose To be a man, or be his shoes.
